

Alfred Ford, Sr. Barn

This very old barn at 725 South Round Valley Lane in Wallsburg, although owned by Alfred Ford, was built by Joseph Henry Pulley. It was built of red pine and part of it is made of logs which were pegged together. The roof is metal which obviously was put on later.

Mr. Ford came to Wallsburg when he was 10 years old and helped his father and brothers clear the sage brush from the land for a farm. One year they had to burn priklypears spines off to keep their cattle and horses alive. The history book "How Beautiful Upon the Mountain" states that Mr. Ford owned the first Ford car in Wallsburg.

Other owners of that barn are Dave Wall, Tracy Hicken and Nicolas Bigney.

Information Mr. Reed Ford

Alfred Ford, St. John

This very old barn at 725 South Grand Valley Lane in Wallisburg, although owned by Alfred Ford, was built by Joseph Henry Bailey. It was built of red pine and part of it is made of logs which were pegged together. The roof is metal which originally was put on later.

Mr. Ford came to Wallisburg when he was 10 years old and helped his father and brothers clear the sage brush from the land for a farm. One year they had to burn thirty-three acres off to keep their cattle and horses alive. The next year "How beautiful upon the Mountain" states that Mr. Ford owned the first Ford car in Wallisburg.

Other owners of the barn are Dave Ford, Tom, Chicken and Nicholas Higney.

Information Mr. Ford